Mentors for Kids' Sake 2006

Big Brothers Big Sisters (BBBS) of the Greater Seacoast will host a fundraiser on Thursday, October 19th, 2006 to celebrate those who have demonstrated a commitment to the agency's mission. The event will be held at The Wentworth by the Sea Hotel in New Castle and feature a silent and live auction, dinner, music and guest speakers.

Three local individuals will be honored for their continuous efforts and support with the agency. These honorees include award-winning Radio News Director and Talk Show Host, Mike Pomp, Big Brother and CEO and President of Margarita's Restaurant, Shawn Joyce and Portsmouth Hospital's Bill Schuler.

Entertainment will be provided by Lee Griffin and company as Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and Liza Menilli . There will be a wonderful silent and live auction with great items, perhaps shop for Christmas! Everything from vacation destinations, sports tickets, to a Director's Cut case of wine!

Tickets are available for purchase by calling 603.516.2227 extension 306 and run $100 per ticket or a table of ten for $1000.

The Mentors for Kids Sake 2006 event will raise awareness of our programs as well as the critical funds needed for recruitment, screening, training, matching, supervision, and evaluation needed to ensure a productive, safe, and positive mentoring experience for our Seacoast's children

BBBS is dedicated to helping children reach their full potential by providing professional, one-to-one, mentoring. The Greater Seacoast chapter has been operating since 1977 and currently serves children from Rockingham and Strafford counties. Over 600 matches have been made locally and BBBS is striving to serve over 1,000 by the end of the decade. Help make this goal a reality. Contact BBBS today.
